

CONCORDIA

March 12, 1997

Stingers

Stingers to meet York Yeowomen in first round at basketball nationals

The Concordia Stingers women's basketball team has been seeded fourth at the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union (CIAU) eight-team national championship in Thunder Bay, Ont. They will play the fifth-seeded York Yeowomen on Friday at 6 p.m.

Concordia and York have met twice this season with the Stingers coming out on top both times by scores of 60-52 and 63-54.

Concordia defeated McGill 59-57 on March 8 to win the Quebec championship and advance to the nationals.

The first day of the competition is as follows:

Victoria Vikes (3) vs. the Western Ontario Mustangs (6)	1 p.m.
Manitoba Bisons (2) vs. St. Francis Xavier X-Women (7)	3 p.m.
Concordia Stingers (4) vs. York Yeowomen (5)	6 p.m.
Toronto Varsity Blues(1) vs. Lakehead Lady Nor'Westers (8)	8 p.m.

A victory Friday would see the Stingers face the winner of Toronto and Lakehead game.

Fastest man in the CIAU

Lenroy Henry, a second-year Political Science major, has been dubbed the fastest man in CIAU after winning the prestigious 60-metre race at nationals in Windsor, Ont., on March 8. His time was 6.86. He brings home Concordia's first ever gold medal in track and field. The top two finishers in each category at the nationals are named CIAU All-Canadians.

Henry is also a cornerback on the Concordia football team.

Rugby all-stars announced

The Quebec Student Sports Federation announced its 1996 rugby all-stars yesterday. On the men's side, Concordia collected seven honors. Alfredo Demartino, Paul Van Wyck, Chris Gregory, Mathieu Garston, Jacob Cocks, Russ Brown and Sal Dagher are the all-stars. An eighth player, Hugues Boivin, received an honorable mention.

On the women's side, Anne Coyle was the sole Stinger to make the all-star team.

Slotback Uzo Ubani invited to CFL combines

Uzo Ubani, an inside receiver who just completed his fourth season with the Stingers, has been invited to the Canadian Football League evaluation camp, which will be held in Calgary on March 21 & 22.

Ubani, a resident of Dorval, Que., measures 6'2" and 200 lbs. Last season, he caught 29 passes for 364 yards and two touchdowns.

Each CFL team submits a list to the league office of Canadian prospects it would like to have evaluated. Only the top vote-getters are invited to the camp.

The CFL will hold its annual college draft on Monday, April 7.

Basketball all-stars announced

J.P. Reimer, a fifth-year forward with the Stingers, was named the Outstanding Player in QSSF men's basketball when the conference announced its all-stars last week. He was named to the first all-star team. Sophomore forward Jay Prosper was also a first team all-star.

The women's basketball team also garnered two first team all-stars. Forwards Patricia Demers and Guylaine Blanchette received the honors.

Upcoming Events

March 14-16

Women's Basketball

Concordia at CIAU nationals in Thunder Bay, Ont.

March 14 & 15

Ski Team

Concordia at Owls Head for slalom and giant slalom

Saturday, March 22

Women's Hockey

Russian national team at Concordia

6:30 p.m.

Thursday, April 10

Annual Concordia Athletics Awards Night

Last Week

Men's Basketball (7-13 in QSSF, 1-2 in playoffs, 12-20 overall)

QSSF semifinal

March 6	Concordia Stingers 75	McGill Redmen 72
	Dan Furlong	17 points
	John Yotis	16 points

QSSF Finals (Best of 3)

March 9	Bishop's Gaiters 84	Concordia Stingers 54
	Alexei Nemtchinov	12 points
March 11	Bishop's Gaiters 85	Concordia Stingers 66
	John Yotis	17 points
	J.P. Reimer	14 points

Women's Basketball (16-4 in QSSF, 1-0 in playoffs, 23-8 overall)

March 8	Concordia Stingers 59	McGill Martlets 57
	Guyline Blanchette	15 points, 6 rebounds
	Cat Tull	14 points, 3 rebounds

Track

March 8 – CIAU nationals in Windsor, Ont.

Men's 60 metres	Lenroy Henry	6.86	1st place/gold medal
-----------------	--------------	------	----------------------

For more details call Sports Information at 848-3862